School Administration has the authority to determine the appropriate consequences which may, in certain situations, deviate from the consequences.

Restorative Behavior Procedure: Any student who has reached the point of suspension following the disciplinary plan in place before a suspension can occur. This DOES NOT apply to disciplinary instances where an OSS is mandated or created for a student following any suspension event. (SB89)

Suspension or Expulsion

- Only students who are at least 11 years old may be removed from a school, suspended, or expelled, with the following exceptions:
 - o A general education student in possession of a firearm or dangerous weapon (NRS 392.466.3), or
 - o Under extraordinary circumstances, in which case a school may request an exception to this prohibition from the district superintendent (NRS 392.467.1).

District Superintendent Modification of Suspension or Expulsion

- A district superintendent may, for a good cause shown in a particular case in that school district, allow a modification to all or part of sections 1-5 of NRS 392.466, if such modification is set forth in writing. If the superintendent determines that a plan of action is likely to be successful, the superintendent must allow the modification (NRS 392.466.7).
